

Tuesday June 23, 2009

QUEER FAMILY PRIDE PARTY

FREE

LGBTQ-led families are encouraged to come celebrate their pride at this annual event held by the Queer Parenting Program. This free family event is a great way to meet other queer families and share experiences. Celebrate your pride with the 519 with live music, food, games and activities for kids, and resources for parents, prospective parents and our children.

WHEN? Tuesday June 23, 2009, 5:00 pm.

to 8:30 pm. WHERE? The 519 Church Street Community Centre and Cawthra Square Park, 519 Church Street. www.the519.org, info@the519.org.

GLOBAL HUMAN RIGHTS FOR QUEERS: QUEER
WEST FEST COMMUNITY
RECEPTION & PANEL DISCUSSION

FREE

The reception in the heart of Queer West Village at the historic Gladstone Hotel is to honour Victor Juliet Mukasa, this year's International Grand Marshal for Pride Week 2009. The Queer Peers and Pride Toronto present a Human Rights Panel Discussion on International Gender Politics following the reception. Features panelists include Victor Juliet Mukasa, N. Nicole Nussbaum, Susan Gapka, Notisha Massaquoi, Christine Decelles, Erika Ayala and Evan Ortigoza.

WHEN? Tuesday June 23, 2009, 7 pm.

WHERE? Gladstone Hotel, 1214 Queen Street West. www.pridetoronto.com.

THIS IS NOT A READING SERIES PRESENTS:
SHE'S SHAMELESS/
SHE'S WRITING

$$$

In June 2004, Shameless, a magazine for "girls who get it", first appeared on newsstands. Megan Griffith-Greene and Stacey May Fowles have assembled She's Shameless: Women write about growing up, rocking out, and fighting back. Contributors will perform short pieces, and an early '90s-themed prom featuring a noted local DJ will follow. Presented by Pages Books & Magazines, Tightrope Books, Shameless, NOW Magazine, Gladstone Hotel and Take Five On CIUT.